RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On July 17, 2020, Wanda Oliver filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a right shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) after an influenza (“flu”) vaccine received on October 23, 2018. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 13, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case, noting that DICP has concluded that Petitioner suffered a right SIRVA as defined by the Vaccine Injury Table. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1, 3. Specifically, Petitioner had no recent history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction of her right shoulder; the onset of Petitioner's pain occurred within 48 hours after receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; Petitioner's pain was limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality has been identified to explain Petitioner's right shoulder symptoms. Id. at 3-4. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner met the statutory requirements by suffering the condition for more than six months. Id. at 4.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
